

Benefits of IASP Membership

Professional Support

- Legal Advice. The association will assist you when faced with contractual issues through one of Indiana's top legal firms.
- Vacancy Listings. Through our web site www.iasp.org, you will have access to administrative vacancies on a daily basis.
- Professional Growth Points. PGP's awarded for conference and workshop participation.
- Post your Resume on the IASP website when looking for employment

Representation

- Active lobbyist in the Indiana General Assembly. You have a voice in the legislature through our involvement with legislators and testimony on education legislation. IASP also provides support in this area through a full-time professional lobbyist who is also a former principal.
- Congressional Contacts. Through our Federal Relations Coordinator, as well as the Executive Director and President, your concerns are heard by Indiana's members of the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate.
- Key NASSP and NAESP Committees. Once again, you are represented in both national principals associations through service on a wide variety of committees.
- Voice to the State Board of Education. The association regularly attends and monitors the activities and decisions of the board.
- State Superintendent's Advisory Committee. Each of the twelve IASP districts has a representative who attends regular meetings with the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the purpose of sharing ideas and concerns. Additionally officers & directors meet with staff for input.
- Membership on State Boards and Committees. Your profession is represented on such important boards and committees as the Indiana Education Roundtable, Teacher and Principal evaluations and Accountability Models.
- Principal Certification. IASP continues to serve a key leadership role in the development and implementation of new certification processes for building level leaders.

Professional Growth

- Fall Conference. You are able to attend at reduced fees the annual conference, which is always focused on current educational initiatives and provides insights into best practice across the nation.
- Assistant Principals Conference. This conference is specifically designed to meet the challenges and professional growth needs of our state's assistant principals.
- Educational Leaders Network® (ELN) A Library of professional development webinars available at a discounted cost for IASP members. This 12-month subscription provides continual access to all current & future webinars. An added benefit is the ability to view these with all your staff in large group, small group, or one-on-one settings.
- Secretaries Conference. This annual event typically brings dedicated school secretaries together for a day of professional development and celebration.
- Aspiring Principals Conference. The association sponsors this conference each spring. It is designed to attract quality teachers to our profession. IASP membership is included with registration.
- New Administrators Conference. This conference is held in July and assists first-time administrators with the logistical priorities when moving into their positions.
- District Meetings. Each district holds meetings throughout the school year, designed to bring members together to share ideas and celebrate successes, and to hear topical updates from IASP, NAESP, NASSP and the Indiana DOE.
